REFERENCES.

The names and addresses of TWO Sponsors or the name of one serving Guild Council member is required. These sponsors must know you personally and be willing to verify your full-time professional engagement within the watch and clock or allied trades.

They are to also verify that your membership of the Guild is both beneficial to the Trade as a whole as well as to yourself personally.

The Sponsors should ideally be members of the British Watch and Clock Makers Guild, or persons connected with the trade. If you are employed, one of your sponsors may be your employer, unless you are the proprietor or a director of the business that employs you.

Only one of your named Sponsors may be a Material supplier. Alternatively if you are new to the Trade, or work in isolation, as many watch and clock makers do, persons of office, to whom you are known personally are acceptable i.e. JP, Dr., Rev., etc.

In the case of recently graduated students, who have attended a full time (one year or more) formal course of Horological training and have graduated within the past 12 months, only the details of your senior course tutor are required.

A copy of this application may be sent to your Sponsors and other members of The British Watch and Clock Makers Guild, if Council so request.

Declaration.

I wish to apply for membership of the British Watch and Clock Makers' Guild.

The details I have given are true and accurate and if elected into membership I agree to uphold the good name of the Trade and to abide by the rules and constitution of the Guild.

I understand the Membership Certificate that will be issued if I am elected into Membership will remain the property of the British Watch & Clock Makers' Guild, as do any images of the Guild emblem I might display. I agree that if my membership terminates or lapses this Certificate and any Guild emblems must be returned to the Guild. Furthermore I understand that any other Guild Insignia displayed on my premises, or letterhead etc, or any other implication of membership of The British Watch & Clock Makers' Guild must be removed from display upon lapse or termination of Membership. I understand that The Guild is a company limited by guarantee and as such if elected into its membership I accept a liability of a maximum of One Pound Sterling.

Please find my annual subscription of £52 plus a one off administrative fee of £5 making a Total £57 to cover membership until next Dec. 31st. (Subscriptions paid by applicants for membership after 1st October in any one year will be credited for the year following, after which all subscriptions are due on 1st January each year).

I understand that if my application for membership is turned down the total sum paid with this application will be refunded to me.
